FAIR PLAY

(Fair Play, 2014, 100 min.), dir. Andrea Sedláčková

Thursday, May 7, 7 p.m.

(followed by Q&A with director and reception)

In 1980s Czechoslovakia, young and talented sprinter Anna is selected for the national team and starts training to qualify for the Olympic Games. As part of the preparation, she is placed in a secret "medical program", where she is given anabolic steroids to better her performance. Her mother (Anna Geislerová) sees the drugs as Anna's ticket out from behind the Iron Curtain, while Anna knows the doping is harming her body.

In a story that follows the impacts of a decision, a young woman is tested by fate.

CLOWNWISE

(Klauni, 2013, 120 min.), dir. Viktor Tauš

Friday, May 8, 7 p.m.

Oskar, Max (Oldřich Kaiser) and Viktor (Jiří Lábus), once a superstar clown trio, split up over a heartbreaking fight. Now they are paying the price of thirty years of separate grueling lives on and off the stage. Their irresistible sense of humor is challenged by the proximity of the physical end and other joys of old age. They are about to risk everything to find out whether there really is not one more show left in them, a re-staging of the famous clownery that launched the group is career, while also facing the hardest challenge yet: clowning their way out.

KRÁSNO

(Krásno, 2014, 119 min.), dir. Ondřej Sokol

Saturday, May 9, 7 p.m.

A dark comedy begins with Michal and Adam, two childhood friends coming back to their hometown after 20 years. Michal's mother has been dead for several years and Michal's father dies on the day they return. His stepmother behaves suspiciously, which encourages Michal and Adam to investigate. They embark on a journey to solve a mystery, unaware that disaster awaits.

ICING

(Zakázané uvolnění, 2014, 77 min.), dir. Jan Hřebejk

Sunday, May 10, 5 p.m.

This explosive comedy, based on a successful theater play, takes place one evening in a remote village pub during an Ice Hockey World Championship match. Many things can happen when a kidnapped bride gets drunk with the best friend of the groom and a barmaid and the only one who is able to stop and save everything, is not coming.

A laugh-out-loud film proving that what is meant to be your perfect day can sometimes turn into a not-so-perfect tragedy.

All films are with English subtitles
