

INVITATION

Consulate General of the Czech Republic in Chicago

Inaugural Evening of Czech Series

Celebrating the University of Chicago's unique contribution to Czech statehood Honoring Czechoslovak Presidents Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk and Edvard Beneš, University's Visiting Professors

Address by

H. E. Mr. Lubomír Zaorálek,
Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic

Guests of honor

Mr. Daniel Diermeier, Provost of the University of Chicago

Ms. Charlotta Kotík, great-granddaughter of President Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk

Ms. Frances Crane Manson, great-granddaughter of Mr. Charles Crane

Music performance by

Mr. Ivan Král, Grammy Award-winning, Czech-American singer and songwriter

Re-inauguration of the Masaryk Club

Reception

Friday, September 23, 2016, 6 pm
Cloister Club and Library-Lounge of the University of Chicago

Ida Noyes Hall, 1212 East 59th Street, Chicago, Illinois 60637

Free Admission

Space is limited. Please reserve your seats.

rsvp.cgchicago@gmail.com or 312 861 1037, ext. 100

For updates please follow www.mzv.cz/chicago

The celebration will be followed by the Moravian Day, the largest annual Czech folklore presentation in Chicagoland and beyond on September 24 and 25, 2016.
unitedmoraviansocieties.org

Sponsors & Partners

BAKED & MICHIGAN

LASVIT

