

On the occasion of the Czech Presidency of the UN Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) the Embassy of the Czech Republic and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Finland have the pleasure to invite to a seminar

"2030 Agenda – Finnish and Czech private sector and the civil society addressing global challenges“

Friday 9 March 2018 from 10:00 to 13:00

Ministry of Foreign Affairs - Department for Communication (Kanavakatu 3C)

Keynotes:

- Ms Kateřina Fialková, Director of the Department of the Multilateral Economic Relations, MFA, Czech Republic
- Ms Annika Lindblom, Secretary General, National Commission on Sustainable Development

Panelists:

- Ms Meri Lumela, Chair of the City Board of Jyväskylä
- Mr Petr Lebeda, GLOPOLIS (independent Think-Tank specialized on global challenges, Czech Republic)
- Mr Jussi Kanner, KEHYS (NGO platform and an expert on global development)
- Mr Pavel Gorecky, ERCTech (company implementing technological solutions for processing construction and demolition waste, Czech Republic)
- Mr Aape Pohjavirta, Founder of FUNZI (mobile service that delivers learning and training to all)

Chair: Ms Tanja Suni, HELSUS (University of Helsinki)

Guests: Ms Aneta Haimannová, Czech Government Council for Sustainable Development; Ms Kaisa Oksanen, Prime Minister's Office; Mr Markus Tuukkanen, Finnish Water Forum; Mr Jachym Judl, Finnish Environment Institute

Program:

10,00 -10,15	Opening by Aila Paloniemi, Committee for the Future, Finnish Parliament
10,15 -11,30	Presentations by the panelists
11,30-12,00	Discussion
12,00-13,00	Lunch

Please confirm your participation by 28 February 2018

Email: helsinki@embassy.mzv.cz

phone: 0961208812