

Czech Stars Sing Jiří Traxler

Jiří Traxler

Jiří Traxler is a Czech-Canadian songwriter, arranger, and pianist who co-defined the Czech swing era before World War II. After going into exile, he found refuge and his new home in Canada. His songs are still popular in the Czech Republic. The following Czech star singers kindly agreed to perform Jiří Traxler's songs for this year's celebration of the Czech National Day in Canada in his honor and in honor of Canadians & Czech Canadians who helped save Czechoslovakia during World War II.

Together to Victory

Petr Janda
Singer, Songwriter &
Guitarist Frontman of Olympic,
#1 Czech Rock Band
www.bestia.cz/olympic

Ondřej Havelka & Melody Makers
Singer & Multitalented Artist, with his Big Band Orchestra Swing Music of 1930s & 40s
www.melodymakers.cz

Jan Vančura & Plavci
Singer & Founding Member of
The Rangers - Plavci in 1964
Country & Folk Music
www.plavci.com

Marta Jandová
Singer, Songwriter,
Actress & TV Host Lead Singer of the German Band Die Happy
martajandova.cz

Jan Smigátor
Swing Singer & Radio Host Great American Songbook
www.smigator.com

Sestry Havelkové
Vocal Trio - Anna Vávrová,
Petra Kohoutová,
Olga Bímová
Swing Music
of 1920s, 30s & 40s
www.sestryhavelkovey.cz

The Swings
Vocal Quartet
Petr Hanzlík, Petr Jindra,
Pavel Švestka & Jiří Hruška
Swing Music
of 1930s & 40s
www.theswings.cz

These performances will be part of the online celebration of this year's Czech National Day in Canada, which will premiere on October 28, 2020, at 8 p.m. ET.

More Information & Updates

 @BorekLizec

 @BorekLizec  @czembea

www.TogetherToVictory2020.com

Embassy of the Czech Republic in Ottawa

