CZECH TRAVEL ACADEMY

The screenshot shows the 'Czech Republic' website interface. At the top left is the logo 'Czech Republic'. A search bar contains the text 'search phrase...'. On the right, there is a user profile for 'Lukas Pokorny' with 'max 22' below it. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column is a navigation menu with categories and progress indicators: 'Welcome to the Czech Republic' (100%), 'Basic info' (100%), 'Basic info Test questions' (100%), 'Prague' (100%), 'Regions' (100%), 'Stories' (100%), 'Prague, Regions and itineraries' (100%), 'For History Buffs' (100%), 'Outdoors' (100%), 'Architecture and Outdoors' (100%), 'For Families' (100%), 'Beer & Beverages' (100%), 'Gastronomy Test' (100%), 'BCNUJ: Historical Overview' (100%), 'Spa and Wellness' (100%), 'Culture and Gastronomy' (100%), 'LGBT' (100%), 'MCE' (100%), and 'Cities, gates to regions' (100%). Below the menu is a 'Master certificate' section showing '100%' completion and a 'MASTER CERTIFICATE' button. The right column features a 'Basic info' section with a sub-header 'Today's Czech Republic has been through a few name changes throughout history. Three important ones to remember'. Below this is a large image of a town by a river, captioned 'Czech Republic'. Underneath the image is the text 'The Czech Republic: 1993 - today' and a paragraph: 'On January 1, 1993, the Czech Republic peacefully split with Slovakia to form two independent countries with a lot of shared history. You might see the nickname "Czechia" on GPS maps or sports jerseys since it was introduced in 2016, but the full official name of the country is still the Czech Republic. Using the shortened version is likely to ignite a decisive love-it-or-hate-it debate among the locals, so sticking to "the Czech Republic" is a safer bet.' At the bottom of the right column, it says 'Czechoslovakia: 1918 - 1993'.
