

I. Czech Evaluation Plan 2025 and 2026

1) Overview

A. Internal Evaluations	Number of evaluations = 0
B. External and Combined (internal + external) Evaluations:	Number of evaluations = 7-8
C. Joint Evaluations (with other donors, partners, international organisations)	Number of evaluations = 0

2) Particular Evaluations

EXTERNAL AND COMBINED EVALUATIONS
No.	Target country	Sector / thematic priority + SDG	Name of project / programme	Coordinator	Implementor	Implementation period	Number of evaluated interventions (CZK)	Goals and use of evaluation
1	Cambodia	Health	Project: 'Czech perinatology hands to Cambodia'	CzDA	Vita et Futura Foundation	2021-2023	CZK 23 606 646 Grants	The evaluation aims to verify sustainability and replicability of the project with a view to the development of a system solution. The project attempted to introduce new efficient systems of work in the maternity ward, supported by digitisation (3 applications developed - 2 for education, 1 for data collection). As the project faced some technical capacity constraints and cultural barriers in the implementation of new practices, it is also important to use evaluation to map the causes of problems in digitising healthcare and recommend how to prevent them. An essential part of the evaluation should also focus on coherence with the activities of other donors and coordination with them. Note: The recommendations from this evaluation may be reflected in the follow-up project launched in 2024.
2	Syria	Humanitarian and assistance	The Czech Republic's Reconstruction Programme in the Middle East Region - Evaluation of selected projects implemented in North-Eastern and North-Western Syria.	MFA (Development Cooperation and Humanitarian Assistance Department, and Middle East and North Africa Department)	CARITAS Czech Republic, People in Need, ADRA, CARE Czech Republic	2021-2024	CZK 80 000 000 Grants	The objective of the evaluation is to map the outputs of long-term projects, with an emphasis on their contribution to local stabilization. A welcome outcome of the evaluation will also be recommendations for remote implementation and monitoring of these activities, as well as insights for future interventions—particularly in the context of current geopolitical developments affecting humanitarian approaches and coordination..

3	Ethiopia	Sustainable use of natural resources	1. Study of natural phenomena threatening agricultural production in selected zones of SNNPR 2015-2017 2. Finalisation of hydrogeological mapping of Ethiopia 2016-2019 3. Geological and hydrogeological map compilation on a 1:1000 000 scale for the entire territory of Ethiopia– 2020-2023 4. Sustainable landscape management in selected areas of Ethiopia based on geoscience mapping 2019-2024	CzDA	Projects No. 1,3 and 4: Czech Geological Survey Project No. 2: GEOTest, a.s.	ad1) 2015–2018 ad 2) 2016–2019 ad 3) 2020–2023 ad 4) 2019-2024	TOTAL: CZK 48 542 496 Item 1 Total funding from Development Cooperation: CZK 7 473 913 Funding instrument: Budgetary measure Item 2 Total funding from Development Cooperation: CZK 17,976,486 Funding instrument: Public procurement Item 3 Total funding from Development Cooperation: CZK 18,382,950 Funding instrument: Budgetary measure Item 4 Total funding from Development Cooperation: CZK 27,236,400 Funding instrument: Budgetary measure	The evaluation aims to map the current and potential use of the outputs (digital maps). Within the broader context of the Czech Republic's activities in the field, the evaluation of these projects should suggest how to increase the practical use of the data (maps) in different sectors (water, agriculture, and environment) in the future. In addition, the evaluation will also address the issue of coherence and coordination between donors, including potential use or replication in the context of the Team Europe Initiative "Transboundary water management in Africa".
