

European Summer School 2011 (ESS 2011)
What Europe in 2020 – Ever Closer, Ever Larger?
July 9 - July 19, 2011
Prague, Czech Republic
Application Deadline: May 17, 2011

- Come to Prague to learn about the European Union and Central European views on this issue.
 - Find out how the new EU member states from Central Europe perceive the progress of the European integration with experts of one of the best Czech think tanks.
 - Gain the knowledge, but also become an active designer of policy solutions and strategies.
 - Debate challenging ideas and viewpoints with the EU policy researchers and analysts.
 - Explore the magnificence of Prague – one of the richest cultural capitals in Europe
-

EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy associated with the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence in European Studies at the Faculty of Social Sciences of Charles University has launched the ninth year of summer school to discuss different issues which the European Union is facing.

If you are an undergraduate/graduate student interested in the region of Central Europe and in the current political and economic problems – this Summer School is just for you!

Bringing international students to Prague for the intensive ten days school is intended to be fruitful academic and cross-cultural experience combining workshops and informal social interaction with your colleagues – students of diverse educational and cultural backgrounds. Living and studying in Prague, the most fascinating capital of Central Europe, will enable you to explore the richness and beauty of Central European culture.

Interested !!!!! Please visit our website www.europeum.org/ess2011 or contact us:

INSTITUT PRO EVROPSKOU POLITIKU
EUROPEUM
INSTITUTE FOR EUROPEAN POLICY

EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy
Rytířská 31, CZ-110 00 Praha 1

Tel: +420 221.610.207

Fax: +420 221.610.204

E-mail: ess2011@europeum.org
www.europeum.org/ess2011