The Fairy Tales for Ema is a romantic story taking place during Advent season. Petr Miller has been working for the Immigration Office in London for many years. One day, a phone call from Prague interrupts his usual life rhythm. A single mother, who is in a hospital after a car accident, named him as a responsible person to take care of her child. She claims Ema is his daughter. At the same time, Petr meets Marie who, like him, is consumed with work and almost lost hope for the pleasures of ordinary life...
