Aneveningofsongscomposed by womenimprisoned in thecampsduringthe Holocaust. Lullabies, songsoflongings, rage, desperation and hope. AmongstthecomposersIlse Weber and Ludmila Peskarova.

Thestoriesbehindthesongs are striking. Somewereburied in thefoundationsof a death camp. Forsome, thecomposeris a phantom, a name and little more.

Theoriginalarrangements by GrammyAwardwinnerforContemporary World Music Frank London and virtuoso Jazz pianist Shai Bachar fill the songswithnewlife.
