

Hosted Buyer Program

FOODTECH Greece, a new international trade show held on 12th-14th October 2019 at Metropolitan Expo, is specifically targeted at the production, processing, packaging and handling technologies of Food & Beverages, and is the place to be for F&B professionals from the entire range of food production and manufacturing area (including plant managers, quality control supervisors, R&D managers, engineers, logistics managers, procurement support, etc.).

Below you will find all the necessary information about the FOODTECH 2019 Hosted Buyer Program as well as the application's link button which you may forward to the potential buyers who are interested in applying.

The preparations for the 1st FOODTECH are already underway (you may find the visitor brochure here).

Key figures at a glance:

- 300 exhibitors from Greece and worldwide, producing and importing technology and processing products as well as services across the F&B industry
- 18,000 + trade visitors from around the world,
- 250 Hosted Buyers with a specially designed platform for pre-scheduling B2B meetings with exhibitors of their choice.

Apply to be a Hosted buyer

By joining the FOODTECH Hosted Buyer program, international buyers will enjoy:

- Full or partial cover of their airplane ticket,
- Complimentary Hotel accommodation at a 4-5 stars hotel,
- Complimentary transportation to and from the Exhibition center,
- Access to the FOODTECH MatchMaking online platform for scheduling their B2B meetings beforehand.

More than 160 companies have already finalized their participation – leading suppliers from Greece and the world, which produce or import Technology and Processing products and services – covering more than 20.000^{m2} exhibition area.