Aerospace, Maritime and Defence 2020

CONNECT . ENGAGE . DO BUSINESS

Connecting South African Defence with International Markets

Bookings are now open for the sixth annual Aerospace, Maritime and Defence (AMD) Conference – the industry’s leading networking platform, focusing on the local and international players that drive local defence business.

For the first time, AMD 2020 is being hosted as a one-day virtual conference, creating an opportunity to connect the SA Defence industry with international markets.

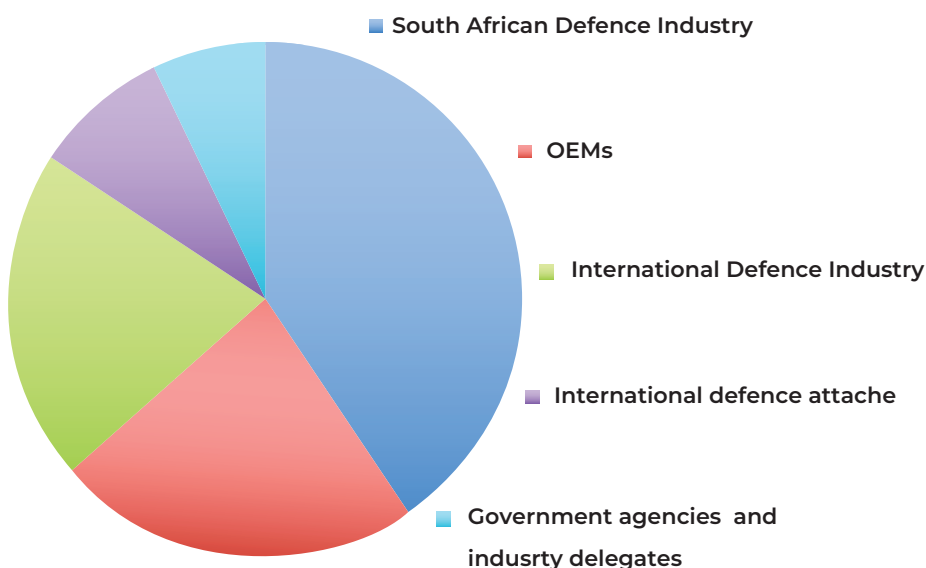

Delegates will be able to attend the conference, but most importantly you will be given the opportunity to network and arrange powerful B2B meetings without leaving your office!

Some of the topics to be covered at AMD 2020 include:

- Defence industry budget
- Maritime security
- Satellite and surveillance
- Border Management and Insurgency
- Defence logistics and supplies
- New technologies for aerospace and defence

Target Audience

The AMD conference attracts a powerful and influential audience, including decision-makers, thought leaders and policy makers. Databases are continually updated to ensure that we deliver a quality, relevant audience.

- Date: Tuesday 29 September 2020
- Time: Webinars kick off from 09h00

Participants will not only be able to engage, collaborate and potentially close deals with key players within the market, but will also provide content, insight and business growth opportunities to those in attendance.

Through the latest remote conferencing software, the AMD Conference 2020 will give you the opportunity for one-on-one interactions with global original equipment manufacturers and other key decision-makers.

AMD 2020 will give local and international audiences the opportunity to familiarise themselves with the South African defence industry. Space is limited. Book now.
