Bohemia Hop a.s.

Bohemia Hop company is the bearer of the Czech hop growing tradition since 1991 with connection to the mother company Chmelarství, cooperative Žatec. Growing and trading hops in the Czech Republic have been known worldwide for many centuries. That is why the company's trademark contains an old expression for the Czech country – Bohemia. The quality of Czech hops and beer is well known all over the world. Both have become world-renowned standards for quality. Fine aroma hops - Saaz - often called also "Czech noble aroma hop" is nowadays used for brewing excellent beer on all continents. World significant breweries use this variety, especially for brewing "premium" types of beer. The aim of our company is to continue in the long tradition and to be always a superior and reliable partner for all our customers buying our hops. Besides the main variety Saaz, we can also offer other Czech varieties including Sladek, Premiant, Kazbek, Agnus, Vital, Saaz Late, or Bohemie.
