The U Hybernů Palace is a beautiful historical building located in one of the most prestigious areas of Prague near the Municipal House and the Powder Tower. The palace is named after the Irish Franciscans. In the 19th century it was rebuilt as a customs office for the Austrian Empire and after a major reconstruction in 2006 it became a theater. Today, the Hybernia Theatre is in use presenting musicals, concerts and other theatrical performances.

It is mandatory to register for the tour using the contact information provided below.

The term for the deposit of 15 000 000 CZK: 24th March 2025 until 11⁵⁹ p.m.
