A reception will follow the discussion.

H.E. Petr Gandalovič, Ambassador of the Czech Republic to the United States, will open the event. Political Director Pavel Fischer and Martins Zvaners of the RFE/RL will introduce the Václav Havel Journalism Fellowship. The first Václav Havel Fellow, Belarusian journalist Franak Viachorka, will present the documentary Lesson of Belarusian (2006). Excerpts of the film will be screened at the event.

The Václav Havel Journalism Fellowship is a joint program between the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic and RFE/RL. Inspired by the former president's belief in the power of words and recognizing the transformational role of journalism in challenging tyranny, it provides training and development opportunities at RFE/RL's Prague headquarters to journalists from countries where media freedom is stifled and independent journalists are at risk.

The event is part of the Embassy's project: Freedom of Expression in the Contemporary World, dedicated to Miloš Forman and Václav Havel, running from February-May 2012.

During the reception, guests may view a special exhibition celebrating the life of former President of the Czech Republic Václav Havel by leading Czech photographer Tomki Němec.
